Discuss IT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

A topic of concern is a new civil war. Its completely possible because the media has been brainwashing civilians and turning them into closeminded violent people with anti-Trump protest looking more like a war field or a riot. With normal people becoming monsters destroying property and hurting innocent people who believe differently. So, it's completely possible that a civil war will break out. But instead for getting rid of racism or other problems, it's the media turning family's friends and even country's against each other just because of a dumb post on a website. The media is turning the people against the people instead, of noble people fighting for their rights and for other people. Instead we have people fighting for a source that doesn't matter or even care as much as the protestors.
